

BIOGRAPHY

With a passion for singing and songwriting...this budding Australian contemporary country artist is going places.

At the tender age of just sixteen, Lily Grace is an extremely talented artist, songwriter and storyteller. Already turning industry heads, collaborating with iconic Australian artists and drawing strong crowds, this Gold Coast Australian native is one of the most exciting female artists to emerge in recent years. With her relaxed, easy-listening style and warm and natural stage presence, this vibrant songstress leaves audiences transfixed by her talent, her young age, and her unique style.

Naturally gifted, Lily Grace began singing at 10 years of age. She dived deeper into music five years ago when she was gifted her first guitar. Her determination led her to performing at local markets, and soon after, attracting her to local cafes, restaurants, events and festivals. Her love for performing and following her country music dream came true when she released a collaboration with acclaimed Australian artist James Blundell entitled Annie June. The excitement around the track helped it reach the Top 10 on the 'Australian Country Radio' chart, #17 on the 'Hottest Australian Country Hits' chart, #9 on 'Country Radio Charts,' and #31 on the 'Countrytown Hot 50 Music Chart'. The official music video was played in high rotation on Foxtel's & Fetch CMT TV channel reaching #3 in 'Today's Top 15,' and was also featured in 'Official Top 30,' 'Fresh Country,' and 'Aussie Country' programs.

Off the heels of this successful release, a debut solo single, Sixteen Wishes, was next. Within the first week, it was the #1 streamed and downloaded song for Australian radio airplay. This song also rocketed to #3 on the Australian Country iTunes Chart and #27 on the Australian All Genres iTunes Chart. The official music video caught the attention from CMT in Australia, which led to adding it to their playlist and the song even charted in the CMT Official Top 30, currently at #13.

Inspired by the likes of Dan + Shay, Hunter Hayes, Keith Urban, Luke Combs, Maddie & Tae, and Maren Morris, this wholesome artist strives to embody their innovative style, work ethic, and sound in her own unique way. With several years of stage experience already under her belt, she has performed and toured with several big names in the Australian music scene including Amber Lawrence and Catherine Britt, Tania Kernaghan, and James Blundell. She thrives for the moments when she connects with her fans. "My songs revolve around storytelling." Lily takes her dreams, first-hand experiences and stories she hears along the way and turns them into songs that connect with her audience.

When she is not strumming her six-string or on the road performing, this teenager is in school. While balancing school and music, Lily understands and prioritises her time while making sacrifices to allow her journey and music career to unfold. A finalist in the Australian Country Music People's Choice Awards in several categories this year, including Best Female Vocalist, Most Promising Future Star and Best Video, she was awarded Best Video for her single 'Annie June'. Earlier this year, she took home two awards at 2022's Tamworth Songwriters Association Awards for both 'Country Song of the Year' and 'Country Rock Song of the Year'.

With determination, confidence, and passion to create real and honest music, the release of her latest single The Two Of Us Meet in Australia and the USA, has reached over 1 millions streams and placements on the Music Row Country Breakout Chart (#78) and Music Row Indie Chart (#23). The demand for her music has drawn her overseas to the United States and Nashville, where she has spent several weeks doing radio interviews, television appearances, podcasts, songwriting, recording, and performing. She has performed at Live on the Levee in Charleston, West Virginia, alongside the Davisson Brothers Band, as well as individual performances at Barefoot Country Music Festival in Wildwoods, New Jersey, Freedom Fest in Monterey, and writer's rounds at the iconic Bluebird Cafe and other Nashville songwriter venues. Lily exhibits an undeniable warmth and stage presence and is rapidly earning the recognition she deserves, with her strong, 80,000+ social media following, the future is certainly looking bright for this young artist.
